DPI announces private schools registered for Private School Choice Programs for 2023-24 school year

Application period opens Wednesday

MADISON – The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction today announced an updated list of the private schools participating in the state’s three Private School Choice Programs, as the application period for parents/guardians to apply for their students for the 2023-24 school year opens Feb. 1, 2023.

The state’s three Private School Choice Programs allow eligible students to attend a participating private school in K4 through 12th grade. The private school, on behalf of the student’s parent or caretaker, receives a state aid payment for each eligible student.

The Wisconsin Parental Choice Program, which allows students residing outside of the city of Milwaukee and Racine Unified School District to participate, has 339 private schools and school systems registered for the 2023-24 school year. The Milwaukee Parental Choice Program, which requires students to reside in the city of Milwaukee, has 136 private schools registered for the 2023-24 school year. The Racine Parental Choice Program, which requires students to reside in the Racine Unified School District, has 36 private schools registered for the 2023-24 school year.
